- NJHS and NHS have four principle traits: Service, Leadership, Scholarship and Character. We are looking for students who exemplify these traits. You may not be able to fill in many or all of the spaces in the charts on this application – that’s okay. However, if you haven’t already done so, keep in mind that these are areas that you should be focusing future attention.

I. Extracurricular Activities: List all activities (clubs, sports teams, band/orchestra, musicals, theatre, etc.) in which you have participated within the past 2 years:

Activity	Accomplishments	Leadership?

II. Recognition and/or Awards:

Please list below any special recognition, honors, or awards that you have received below.

Honor or Award Name	Organization and/or Description

III. NJHS Code of Conduct

As a member of the National Junior Honor Society, I certify that I will hold myself to higher moral character, not only in school and with NJHS related activities, but also in my day-to-day life.

I will be a good person and treat others with equality and respect, which is the same way I would like to be treated. Ecker Hill NJHS will not tolerate discrimination in any way, shape, or form.

I will live each day with integrity by doing the right thing, especially when nobody is watching.

I will do my best to balance my life with academics, athletics, extracurricular involvement, friends, and family.

I will give my best effort to serve my school and community, while maintaining a positive attitude throughout the year.

I hereby certify that I will hold myself to these standards for the entire 2018-19 school year. I understand if I am found in violation of the NJHS code of conduct (including, ISS, classroom removal, computer strikes etc.) or rules, (more than one unexcused absence or not fulfilling my service hour requirements) I will be removed from NJHS activities and I will not be eligible for the induction ceremony in May.
